

FOR OUR FIRST TASK OF 10 OBSERVATIONAL DRAWINGS, WE WALKED ALONG THE SOUTH BANK RIVERSIDE AND DREW OUR SURROUNDINGS. I FOUND IT RATHER INTIMIDATING AT FIRST TO DRAW PURELY FROM OBSERVATION AS QUICK AND ACCURATE SKETCHES HAS BEEN ONE OF MY WEAKEST AREAS. I FOCUSED ON DRAWING OBJECTS AROUND ME TO START WITH.

ONE OF THEM WAS AN EXTREMELY DIRTY BIN WHICH HAD STAINS AND CIGARETTE BUDS SCATTERED ALL OVER THE TOP AND CHEWING GUM STUCK TO THE SIDES ETC. I FOUND THE JUXTAPOSITION INTRIGUING. THERE IS AN IRONY IN SUCH SENSE THAT EVERYONE WANTS TO LIVE IN A CLEAN AND BEAUTIFUL ENVIRONMENT. ON THE OTHER SIDE, AS HUMAN WE ARE ALSO CONSTANTLY PRODUCING MORE WASTE TO THE PLANET.

I CHOSE TO EXPAND ON THIS TOPIC AND CREATED A SHORT COMIC STRIP THAT INSINUATE THE CARELESSNESS IN HUMAN FLAWS AND THE EXTENT TO WHICH OUR SMALLEST ACTION COULD RESULT A MUCH GREATER CONSEQUENCE .
